B. PLANNING & CONSTRUCTION

1. Date of erection of this building has not been determined. It was probably acquired by a purchase order which has long since been discarded.
2. Since it was part of the original Buckeye Village, the building would date from 1947 or later. According to the current recollection of Milton Overholt, who managed Buckeye Village, Building 257 was erected shortly after they got into operation, which was early in 1947 (see Report H 458).
